Cycling
Cycling is a great way to travel to the hospitals. There are shared access routes to the Hospitals campus and cycle hire facilities at Govan Cross, Paisley Road Toll and Partick Interchange. Designated visitor cycle parking and a public bike hire station is located at Arrivals Square. Visit www.cyclestreets.net to get the route that suits you.

Walking
There is a good network of pedestrian and cycle facilities connecting the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals to neighbouring communities, Govan bus and subway interchange and Cardonald Train Station. You can access the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals on foot and by bike to or from the north via the Clyde Tunnel. Recent investment has improved CCTV facilities, signage and secure access and entrances to the tunnel. Please use the online journey planner to plan your route www.walkit.com.

Public Transport
Please refer to overleaf map for bus routes and services to the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals. Public transport provides direct access to the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals and allows interchange with the subway, other bus services and the train at Govan, Partick or in the City Centre. Arrival Square is located in the centre of the Queen Elizabeth University Hospitals site and can be accessed from Govan Road and Hardgate Road.

Rail
The hospitals are located around 1.2 miles from Cardonald Train Station with regular buses serving the Hospitals. Cardonald Train Station is managed by Scotrail and is on the Inverclyde line linking Wemyss Bay, Gourock and Glasgow Central.
